Facilitators Organized by CONNECTINGHEALTH

Digital Health Skills & Workforce is one of the thematic workshops, within the framework of CONNECTINGHEALTH, a preparatory action funded by the European Commission that aims to and maximize the value of innovation in the sector of digital health.

The Workshop will explore the opportunities and challenges experienced by the health sector workforce, including a recent pandemic, an aging society with increasing chronic diseases and multimorbidity, and the digitization of information systems. Also, the workshop will address the training and education needs of healthcare workers and propose an agenda for 2030, to work towards resilient health systems that can meet the challenges of the sector and provide safe and equitable access to health.
